FOUNDED BY A SMALL GROUP OF EDUCATORS IN 1953, TO BETTER SERVE THE FINANCIAL NEEDS OF THEIR PEERS AND COMMUNITY.

TO OUR VALUED MEMBERS

Over the last 70 years, the volunteer members of HRCU's Board of Directors, both past and present, have dedicated their talents, time, and energies to ensuring the success of the credit union and serving fellow members.

Each, in their own way, has made a difference that has ensured the credit union's on-going viability as well as improving the communities it serves.

The common thread they all share is a passion for the Board's defined vision –

"To enhance and improve our members' lives and the communities we serve by always doing more now, and in the future."

Perhaps you or a member you know is composed of these same qualities? If so, Board service may be right for you. It's an amazing experience and provides numerous opportunities to foster personal and professional growth.

An ability to collaborate, to question, and to commit to working for improvement along with a passion to represent your fellow members is all it takes to be a successful member of the Board.

If you are interested in possibly serving as a credit union volunteer, please feel free to contact Board Secretary Linda Bollinger via email at boardofdirectors@hdriver.org for more information.

FRAUD SCAMS ARE ON THE RISE

HRCU is committed to keeping members educated on ways to avoid falling victim to fraud. Fraudsters are devising unique ways to defraud consumers out of their hard-earned money. Below are tips for protecting you from potential threats.

- If you receive a One-Time Passcode and did not attempt to log in anywhere, your account is likely compromised. Contact the company or institution ASAP and discuss next steps.
- If you receive a check in the mail you aren't expecting and don't recognize the sender, more than likely this is a scam. Bring the check to HRCU and have an MSR review it with you.
 - Especially if there is a letter included which instructs you to deposit the check and send gift cards or money to a specific company.
- If you share your log in credentials with anyone, you become liable for any negative consequences that occur. DO NOT share credentials with anyone.
 - Someone could deposit fraudulent checks into your account, send money to other financial institutions, or link your account to money transfer apps (Venmo, PayPal, etc.) and send money to themselves.

More examples of scams and steps identity theft victims can follow are available online at www.hdriver.org/fraud-prevention-security.

LET YOUR EQUITY SHINE

LET YOUR HOME STAND TALL AND SHINE THIS FALL – WITH A LINE OF CREDIT THROUGH HRCU.

³APR = Annual Percentage Rate. Rates and terms are subject to change without approval or notice. The interest rate applied may be higher based on the applicant's credit score, debt ratio, or other factors. HRCU makes all final determinations regarding applied interest rate. See the Credit and Security Agreements available at HRCU.

- If you meet someone online (via dating sites or social media) and never in person, that individual may be using a fake profile to gain your trust with ulterior motives. Be cautious and avoid sending money to strangers regardless of the excuses they may provide or their requests for secrecy about the relationship.
- If someone calls saying a family member is in trouble and you need to send them money to keep the family member safe, this could be a scam. Hang up and call your family member directly to validate the story BEFORE moving any funds.
- If you are elderly, you will be a frequent target of fraud. In-home health care workers, greedy family members, and companions often try to manipulate the elderly into giving them money. They could also steal money and avoid detection if the individual does not check their statements. You and your family members must be diligent with asking questions and trust your instincts when made aware of suspicious behavior.

We are always here to assist you in evaluating and managing any situation noted above. However, please keep in mind HRCU is unable to recover funds from a transaction you authorize.
